NEW YORK, June 25 .- Announce ment of the passing of H. B. Claffin Company, one of the largest wholesale dry goods firms of the country, into the hands of receivers, caused the New York stock market to sell off from one-half to more than a point during the first hour of trading today. Later, however, prices rallied. In the majority of cases more than half the recessions were recovered and, in a few instances, gains were recorded.

Rumors on Wall Steret late yesterday afternoon brought heavy liquidation.
